

Quorn Local History Group - Newsletter – 22nd November 2022

Our Next Talk: Monday 28th November, 7pm at St Barts Church: The River Lin - A River Through Time. Dennis Marchant will be presenting the research of Ernest Millers and Tony Squires who have investigated the stream from its source in the Ulverscroft valley, to its wanderings through Newton Linford and on to where it joins the River Soar at Quorn. You will be surprised how many archaeological and historical features are passed on its fascinating journey.

Update: This is our final talk of 2022. There will be no meetings in December. Our Annual General Meeting (following a decision to move our financial year end to 31st December) will now be on 13th February at the Blacksmith's Arms. From January 2023 our talks programme moves to Thursday evening, and to the Quorn Church Room. Our first talk, on Thursday 26th January, will be 'Don't Jump! - The Fatal Train Crash at Loughborough'. Membership subscriptions will be due in January - you can pay at this meeting.

Quorn Food and Craft Trail: Sunday 4th December: Quorn Local History Group have been invited to participate again and will have a small stand in the Church promoting the Group and offering a selection of books, walk leaflets and membership vouchers. Christmas Present Ideas! Do pop in and see us! Refreshments will be provided by the Church.

The Heritage Board Christmas Quiz: The Quiz is free to enter. There are two prizes of Amazon vouchers, £50 for the Adult Category and £25 for the junior category (Under 16's - Guardians is signature required). There are 10 questions. All answers can be found on the Heritage Boards in the village. The winners will be drawn from the correct answer sheets on 19th December 2022. Completed answer sheets can be deposited in the Drop Box in the library. Forms available at the next talk and at the Food and Craft Trail.

Facebook and Instagram: If you have any items that you would like to share on the Group's sites simply email: quornlhg@gmail.com

To keep up with the latest, follow QLHG on Facebook. @QUORNLHG