3 MATTERS ARISING

Storage Despite the reminder, the Phoenix Players have not removed their belongings from temporary storage. A letter will be sent warning that if the props and costumes are not moved within seven days, they will be disposed of. The ownership of the scaffolding underneath the stage has not been discovered. It was agreed that the committee would assume ownership and move the scaffolding into the storage container if possible. It will then become available for use by any hall user provided they are sufficiently insured.

Blackout blinds The blinds are due to be fitted this week

Furniture repairs More quotes need to be sought.
